A Message from the Management

Over the years, our law firm has grown to be a prominent corporate law firm in the State of Kuwait. As an owner, I ask myself how we got this far and the answer always revolves around the purpose of our existence: We want to make a difference.

We develop innovative solutions by incorporating complex legal and commercial techniques that lead the industry. Our clients come to us knowing that we make it happen, investing time and effort in realizing their aspirations. We add value to everything we do through going the extra mile to ensure the maximization of clients' returns.

Our team of lawyers forms a pool of strategic thinkers with substantial expertise in the common law and civil law areas, combined with more than half a century of experience in legal practice and traditions in the State of Kuwait. Al Markaz is globally minded and strives to exceed all client expectations in terms of the quality of our work and our responsiveness.

Fawwaz Abd-Allah Al Saeed
Managing Partner

The word 'LAWSUIT' is printed in large, bold, black capital letters. Below it, there are lines for 'Plaintiff' and 'Defendant'. The text 'Notice of a Lawsuit and Request to Defendant' is visible. Below that, it says 'To: (Name of the defendant or - if the defendant agent authorized to receive service)'. Further down, it asks 'Why are you getting this?' and provides a partial answer: 'A lawsuit has been filed against you, or the... of the complaint is attached. A lawsuit... (if you are addressed). A copy of t... States Court of International... or notification... service in...'. In the background, the spine of a book with a red cover and gold lettering is visible.

LAWSUIT

Litigation

Our team aims to offer the best legal protection to our client. We examine the issue from all angles using different perspectives in order to provide the best possible solution, be it formulating a settlement or vigorously litigating the action in court, bearing in mind the time and costs involved for the client.

In addition, we have a proud history of conducting complex litigation matters in the areas of both traditional court proceedings and arbitration such as:

- Proceedings before Courts of First Instance and Appeal;
- Proceedings before the Supreme Court of Kuwait;
- Corporate and commercial litigation;
- Complex construction disputes;
- Administrative litigation;
- Capital Markets Tribunal
- Alternative dispute resolution, including arbitration and mediation, and
- Litigation support in relation to proceedings in foreign jurisdictions.

Arbitration & Dispute Resolution

Al Markaz is widely recognized for handling international and domestic dispute resolutions for clients in a number of areas and industries. We specialize in:

- Arbitration in the Kuwait Arbitration Court;
- Mediation and Alternative Dispute Resolution by negotiation and agreement;
- Arbitration undertaken before the London Court of International Arbitration, International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), and
- International Court of Arbitration and Cairo Regional Center for International Commercial Arbitration (CRCICA).

Banking and Finance

Unprecedented instability in the global financial system has exposed market participants to extraordinary risk and uncertainty. Changes in the financial and regulatory landscape have altered the way business is conducted and are affecting legal arrangements. Our strategy to tackling these issues involves keeping up-to-date with the latest developments in practice across the globe and adapting to this new environment is key to achieving business objectives, from which we may predict the changes in the market direction/trend. Our practice includes:

- All inter and intra bank financing transactions including bond and debenture issues,
- Lending transactions,
- Secured and unsecured international loan agreements,
- Cross-border finance transactions
- Corporate and debt restructuring

A stack of gold coins is shown on a banknote background. The coins are stacked vertically, and the banknote has some numbers visible, such as '74' and '00'. The lighting is warm, highlighting the texture of the coins and the paper.

Islamic Finance

Our lawyers have advised leading Islamic and conventional financial institutions, as both lenders and issuers/borrowers, on Islamic financing products and techniques for over 30 years.

We combine our in-depth market knowledge and insight with our expertise in Islamic legal principles, structures and techniques to orchestrate the most appropriate solutions in accordance with the principles and values of Islamic law.

Al Markaz is specialized in:

- Different Islamic financial, partnership and sale structures such as the Murabaha Musharaka; Ijara, Wakala, Musawama, Bai' Mu'ajjal, Istisna', Muqawala and Tawarruq;
- Lease arrangements with sale and purchase options;
- Conditional sale contracts;
- Project finance;
- Long and short term debt packages;
- The grant of different kinds of security by borrowers, and
- Insolvency and protection of creditor rights.

Construction

Our Construction practice entails helping contractors, corporations, investors and other clients to deliver major infrastructure and development projects.

We work on identifying and addressing the issues and risks arising out of construction contracts, whereby our industry-focused knowledge is necessary to ensure a detailed understanding of their nature.

Our legal practice in Construction includes, without limitation:

- EPC contracts;
- BOT and PPP projects;
- Procurement management;
- Tender management;
- Probity issues;
- Traditional turnkey and other construction contracts and associated sub-contracting arrangements;
- Project management agreements;
- Insurance arrangements applying to construction projects;
- Construction associated services contracts, and
- Construction dispute resolution.

Oil and Gas

Kuwait has one of the largest proven reserves of crude oil in the world and is among the world's largest oil producers. As such, Kuwait's economy is heavily dependent on the oil sector, which accounts for over half of gross domestic output.

Al Markaz provides pioneering advice on the entire lifecycle of energy assets, from the consenting and planning process, through to the construction, financing, operation, maintenance and ultimately their refinancing or sale.

Our work includes advising sellers and buyers (on M&A transactions), project sponsors, corporations, financially active/passive investors, suppliers, manufacturers, governments and debt funders (including banks, bond arrangers, ECAs, DFIs and multilaterals) on energy transactions globally.

Intellectual Property

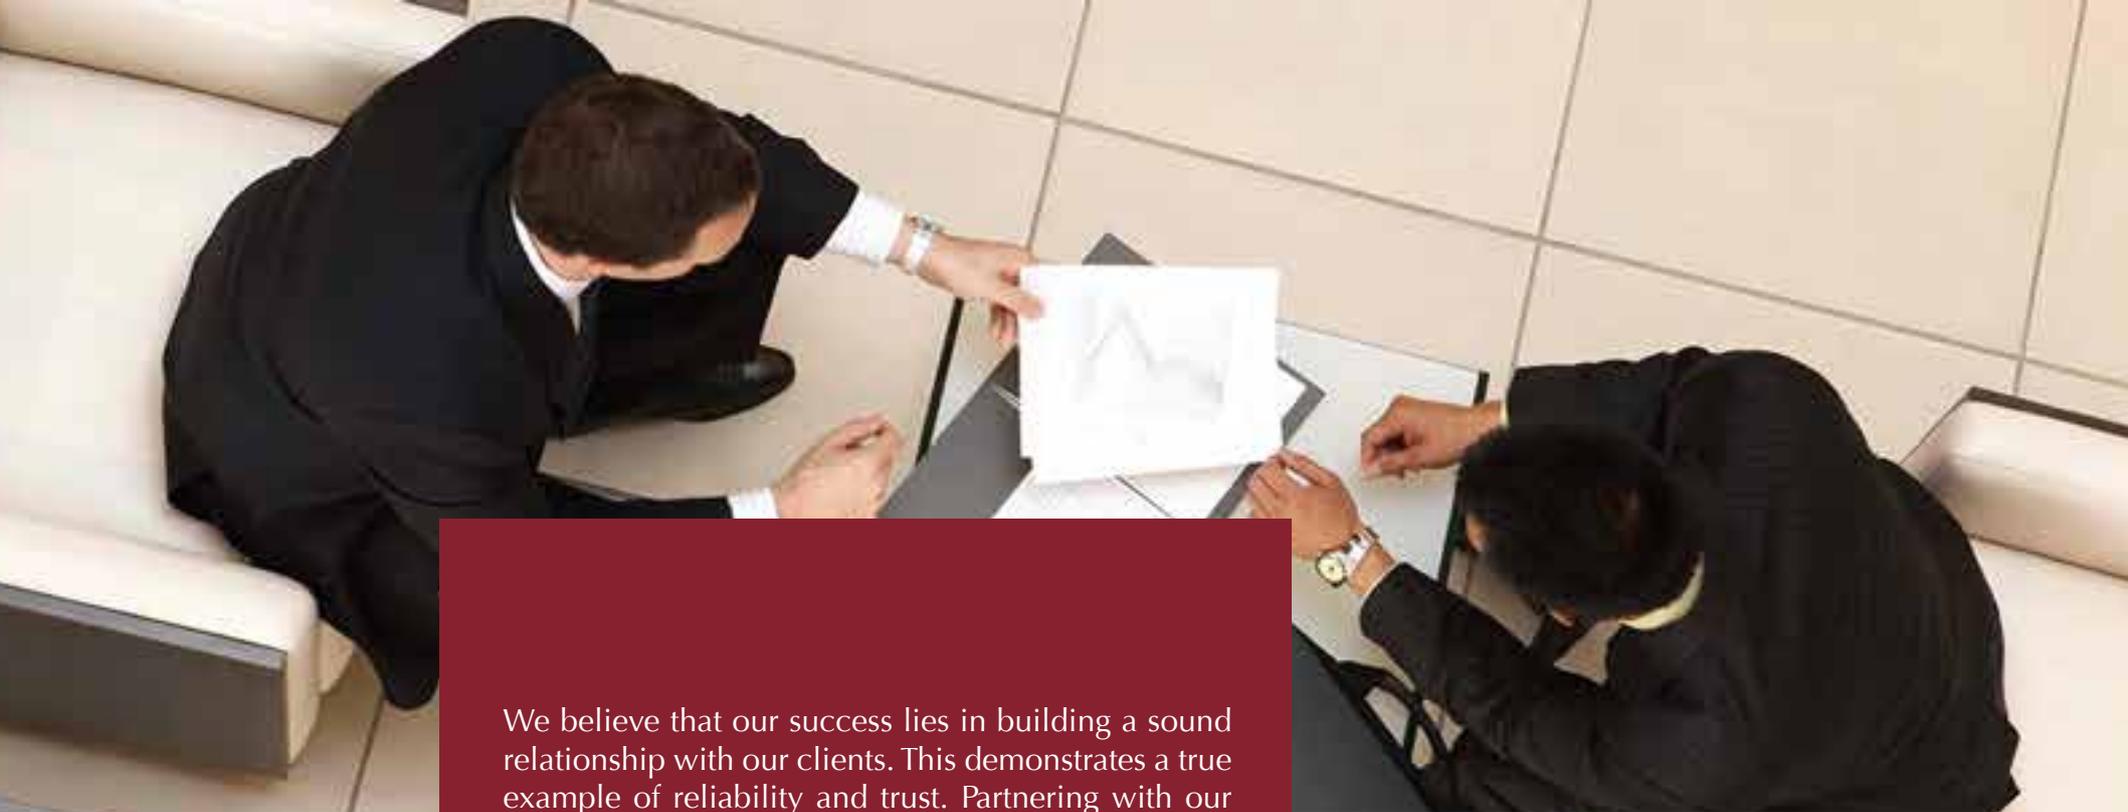

From trademarks, designs and patents registration to litigation and enforcement procedures, Al Markaz offers a full range of services in respect to intellectual property, as we understand the value of intangible assets, ideas, designs and techniques, and the importance of protecting them. We understand the commercial issues and pressures which arise from IP disputes or related negotiations, and provide innovative and strategic solutions to deal with them.

These include:

- Trademarks;
- Patents;
- Copyrights;
- Design Rights;
- Intellectual Property including licensing agreements and registration services
- Confidential Information Protection, and
- Intellectual Property Litigation.

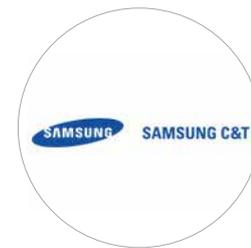

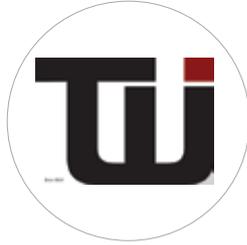

Our Clients

We believe that our success lies in building a sound relationship with our clients. This demonstrates a true example of reliability and trust. Partnering with our clients allows us to guide them locally and internationally, in the pursuit of their diverse business goals. At Al Markaz, we aim to exceed all expectations through quality, speed and convenience. Whether our clients seek to expand their business or make the most of its current commercial activity, or wish to pursue entrepreneurial opportunities in foreign jurisdictions, we work to realize our clients' business objectives.

It is our privilege to count, amongst our growing and diverse client base, numerous leading local and international corporations. Since our inception, we have invested in building the confidence and trust of our clients and today we are proud to be a leading law firm partnering with organizations such as:
